Wm. Caskell, the duplors,
Mr. H. Garner - The Cause

Anniversaries

Leeds Oct 15th
1855

Dear Mary,

Affectionately
Wm. Caskell

The dates about this time are interesting ones to me. The 6th is the date of my marriage & of my husband's funeral. The 14th - the beginning of the "Note of '35" - "The first & sealed" - well to the present.
I shall leave Leeds tomorrow at 10 o'clock A.M. & reach Aberdeen some time in the evening early. I have seen the dear the dear family. Woe's me - if I do not see them I shall be well - like on

Sept 11 1850
Lafayette, & the excellent Armisteads. The latter in the box, as big as a room, which is being packed for Boston.
I find I have a kind providence going before me on the road, in the persons of Mrs Henry Turner, whom I dare say you know all about. I hope I have been able to do good at Mrs Fiskell's. she is going to take advocate, & engage all about the Cause with deep interest. I knew her intimately in Paris & see not why she should not be a friend in time.

She is puzzled by the distemper. I had her look in the dust & smote, for the hooks under fine, & change with them. & for authorities I said if you go with Miss Whiffles here, & the Shaws you know in Louisa, you will be sure to be right. And if you aligne clever black men who wish to make money out of their colour, you will do well. Julia had been there but I blacked her out.

I hear nothing further from Weymouth, of course, yet.

I have been driven about to day with Mrs Lupton to whom Mrs Henry Turner had, I found, commended me, & I am to pass the evening with her. I am commended by my family in London to friends of theirs here, but I have no time to stay & receive their attentions especially as it is out of Leeds, at Wyther-& I should lose the few moments I can command with the Luptons. 'Good Charlotte!' I like her much as well as Fanny.
Harriet I shall not see. She is too delicate. Like Lucia, in her state of health, I fancy. Cordial regards to
